Vera Erickson Becomes Bride of John H. Dagnon

In a ceremony performed by the Rev. Leonard Koehring Monday at 9 a. m. in Holy Redeemer church, Miss Vera B. Erickson, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude T. Erickson, 316 N. Mills st., became the bride of John H. Dagnon, 525 State st., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dagnon, Gays Mills. Lighted tapers and garden flowers banked the altar for the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Donald J. Erickson, Chicago, wore a gown of traditional white satin, designed with a Queen Anne collar and leg-o-mutton sleeves. Her fingertip veil of tulle was trimmed with seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of pink Sally roses tied with white satin ribbons.

A turquoise blue slipper satin gown was worn by the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Maloney, Madison, a cousin of the bride. Her tulle shoulder length veil matched her gown, and her bouquet was fashioned of cream-colored Sally roses.

The best man was Gilbert MacLean, Madison, and the ushers were Alvin Erickson and Robert W. Erickson.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Erickson, 316 N. Mills st. Only members of the bridal party and immediate families were guests. Mrs. William Maloney assisted Mrs. R. W. Erickson and the bride's mother at the reception, which was held from 2 to 4 p. m. A pink and white color scheme was used.
